

The Social World

Mrs.
Gathmey
ALEXANDER A. BROWN
PHOTO

UNDERWOOD &
UNDERWOOD PHOTO

Mrs.
Frank C.
Henderson

Mrs.
Andrew
Morland
ALEXANDER A. BROWN PHOTO

Newport Awaits Big Week
With Regatta and Tennis

New York Yacht Club Fleet Arrives, Ready for Big Events, and Social Whirl Begins; Racquet Stars Will Clash in First Matches To-morrow

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

NEWPORT, July 30.—Next week ushers in the banner month of August, and Newport society is busily preparing for what will doubtless be one of the smartest and most important weeks of the season. The New York Yacht Club races and the invitation lawn tennis tournament, two big events, will be held. Coming together, they not only assure an exciting period, but are likely to provide some feverish activity for many in the matter of fulfilling engagements.

The yachts of the New York Yacht Club, which are on their first cruise since the American entry into the World War, arrived to-day, coming from Block Island, after the run from New London yesterday. Many of those aboard were guests at dinners in the summer colony this evening, and to-morrow there will be a lively round of entertaining of members of the colony aboard the vessels, which will be dressed up in their best for the day. They present a spectacle such as Newport has not seen in the harbor for some time, and make one reminiscent of the holidays.

Astor Cup Races To Be Held

Off Brenton's Reef Monday

On Monday the Astor cup races for the trophies offered by Captain Vincent Astor will be held off Brenton's Reef, and Tuesday will see the contest for the King's cup. This year there will also be additional competition among the vessels, the Newport Yacht Racing Association having offered cups for a race among the fifty, forty and thirty footers. This is scheduled for Wednesday.

Virtually all the boxes in the big grandstand, facing the clubhouse court at the Casino have been taken for the invitation tournament to begin there on Monday. Society is usually represented at this event more fully than at any other of the season, and a checking up of the list of those who have taken boxes shows that there will be a larger and more representative gathering in attendance this year than for several seasons past. Some of the world's best players, and altogether an impressively representative gathering of tennis stars, are seen in the invitation tournament, which took the place of the national championships, formerly held here.

August 12 has been selected as the date for the boys' and girls' swimming races at Bailey's Beach for the cups offered by W. Brett Stokes, who is much interested in the promotion of swimming activity among the young. There will be a contest between the best girl and the best boy swimmer, to be held on the day following. A cup has been offered for this race, but the name of the donor has not been made known. Although the entry lists have been made up only a few days, there are already nearly as many girls entered as participated in the races last year. The boys' cup offered this year is a new one. Only youngsters under sixteen will be allowed to compete in the events.

The new program just given out by the Art Association gives notice of a concert in the new auditorium on August 10. The artists will be Bertha Erna, dramatic soprano; Keith Ryan, tenor; and Oscar da Silva, composer-pianist.

Brother of Lord Fernoy Arrives to Pass Month

Many members of the summer colony will offer prizes for the Rhode Island Kennel Club show, to be held on August 12. Donors already include Mrs. T. Sufferer Teller, Robert Gould Shaw, Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, Mrs. Gustav J. S. White, John Aspengren, Mrs. Philip Rhineland, Mrs. Bradford Norman, M. M. Van Beuren and William F. Whitehouse.

The past week has been the liveliest so far. There was an impressive round of dinners, and starting to-morrow Newport will enter upon one of the most interesting periods it has experienced in many years.

A prominent figure at the Casino this week was Francis Burke Roche, of London, son of Mrs. Burke Roche and twin brother of Lord Fernoy, of England. He arrived during the week for a month's stay, and will stop at the Hill Top Inn. It is his first visit here in several years. He and his brother, who not so long ago inherited a British peerage, were formerly regular summer residents when Mrs. Roche occupied her villa on Bellevue Avenue. It has been leased this season to Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley.

It has developed that Conde Nast, who has leased the villa of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Abney, on the Cliffs, for the season, was actuated to do so because of his enthusiastic belief in the virtues of T. Sufferer Teller's new golf course. This course is credited with being one of the finest in the country. Mr. Nast, while the guest of Mr. Teller here recently, played over the new links, and liked them so well that he leased the villa here for the remainder of the season, so as to have an opportunity of enjoying its privileges. Formerly he and Mrs. Nast were regular summer residents, but this season, as for several past, they had contemplated only occasional visits, until Mr. Nast played over the Ocean Links of Mr. Teller, who has arranged some interesting matches for the next month.

Among the important social activities of the week was the holding of the first of the mutual "at homes" that have been arranged by the wives of the naval officers stationed in and around Newport. It was important in that it marked the first such affair and was in the nature of a trial. The large increase in recent years in the naval colony, and the division of the colony in summer between Newport and Jamestown, has made it very difficult to carry out the custom of exchanging formal calls with the newcomers. To eliminate these difficulties and to provide opportunity for all to get acquainted, a number of these general "at homes" have been arranged.

The first of these took place Monday at the hostess house at the Naval Training Station, when the guests were received by Mrs. William L. Howard, Mrs. Charles P. Plunkett, Mrs. Ashley H. Robertson, Mrs. Frederick N. Bassett, Mrs. J. F. Leys, Mrs. Frank H. Clark, Mrs. Walter S. Anderson and Mrs. Harris S. Lanning. It was a gratifying success, and the affairs will be continued, the next to be held at the Jamestown Casino on August 8.

The first evening party to be given at any of the beaches was held this week by Mrs. Marjorie Oelrichs, who entertained a party of friends at Hazard's Beach on Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Chanvot, of Bordeaux, arrived during the week to spend a month with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walton Golet.

Politics Institute
Draws Society Set
To Williamstown

Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Garfield Give Reception to Visitors; Much Entertaining in Month's Program

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

LENOX, Mass., July 30.—Men and women prominent in international politics, education and society are at Williamstown for the opening of the Williams College institute of politics, which took place yesterday. For society the reception given in honor of the visitors yesterday afternoon by Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Garfield was of first importance. Viscount James Bryce and the Viscountess, of London; Baron Sergius A. Korff and the Baroness, of Finland; the Bulgarian Minister, Stephen Panaretov; Chief Justice William Howard Taft and the president of Harvard, Abbott Lawrence Lowell, and Mrs. Lowell were among those who added distinction to the event.

The institute is to last a month, during which Viscount Bryce is to occupy a fraternity house and other prominent Europeans will be at homes of professors. Among the Williams-town people who are to entertain for the visitors are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bulkeley Hubbell, Mr. and Mrs. E. Parmelee Prentice, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hopkins, Mrs. Amos Lawrence Hopkins, Colonel and Mrs. Archibald Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. Bentley Wirt Warren, the former being senior trustee of Williams.

Mrs. Frederick S. Coillidge is to have the following musical organizations and preserving wild life on a 6,000-acre reservation in that South Berkshire town. A consignment of pheasants was received this week from England.

Owners of the property are the Hilltop, K. Bloodgood estate, Howard Willets, Mr. and Mrs. J. Macy Willets, Benjamin N. Duke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scribner, Mrs. Henry Reese Ellis, Mrs. Rosina Sherman Hoyt, Mrs. Edward Spencer is out on the lake drives pleasant afternoons with chestnut and bay tandem hitched to a basket phaeton. She generally is accompanied by her niece, Miss Mary B. Spencer, of New York.

Among those who registered this week at the Stockbridge golf and tennis club were Mrs. Henry Rawle Geyelin, Miss Florence Marjorie Clendenin, Miss Kate Winthrop, Miss Kate d'A. Bonner, Miss Amy Grannia, Mrs. William Marshall Bullitt, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Franchlyn, John Munroe and Clark T. Durant, of New York.

John Henry Hammond and his two youngest daughters, the Misses Alice F. and Rachel Hammond, were among the golfers at the Lenox course. One of the skilled tennis players noticed was J. Herman Roijen, Dutch diplomat at Rome, who with Mrs. Roijen is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert Winthrop. Mrs. John E. Parsons and Mrs. John O'Donnell were among those who entertained at luncheon during the week for Mrs. Delancy A. Kane, a Curtis hotel visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew, of New York, arrived Thursday at the Aspinwall Hotel for their annual six weeks' visit. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Ballantine also are there.

Arrivals at the Red Lion Inn at Stockbridge include Mr. and Mrs. Lynnford McC. Dickinson, of Noroton, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. James H. Brewster, of Rye; Mrs. Alfred Seton, of Mass. and Mrs. Marie Seton, of Tuxedo Park.

Mrs. Albert Gallatin and her daughter Phyllis.
ALEXANDER A. BROWN PHOTO

MRS. HENDERSON is seen watching the start from Glen Cove of the New York Yacht Club's annual cruise. The fleet is now anchored off Newport and the races for the King's and Astor Cups will take place this week.

Mrs. Gathmey is seen crossing the lawn in her bathing suit on her way to Bailey's Beach at Newport.

Mrs. Morland, of Pittsburgh, who is occupying Mrs. Richard T. Wilson's villa at Newport, is doing much entertaining there.

Mrs. Gallatin is one of the prominent hostesses at Southampton, L. I., this season. She and Mr. Gallatin gave a dinner there last night.

Young Golfers Prepare for
St. Regis River Tournament

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., July 30.—

Young people from the camps who are taking part in the events on the links of the St. Regis River Golf Club in preparation for the August events include Mrs. Allan McLane Jr. and members of her house party at the Upper St. Regis camp of her father, Herbert L. Pratt; Mr. and Mrs. Amory Carhart, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Mitchell, Miss Louise Harkness, Daniel Grant and John Franklin, of New York. Others spending much time on the links are Miss Marion Fisher, of Pittsburgh, and her guests at Camp Forestmere, Miss Olivia Mally, Miss Katherine Williamson, John Mitchell, Stewart McClintock and John Edson Jr.

August teas at the golf club house and a series of afternoon teas at the different camps will serve to bring the members of the summer colony in closer contact and to add to the merriment during the mid-season.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hutton, who have been on a rail trip to the Pacific Coast, returned this week, and will spend the remainder of the season at their camp on the Upper St. Regis Lake. Their house party there includes Mr. and Mrs. Carroll L. Post, the Misses Close and Miss Barbara Hutton.

Mrs. Paul Pitt Simmons of New York, has been joined at the Frederick Taylor camp, on the Upper St. Regis Lake, by her husband and her son, William H. Vanderbilt.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Drexel Godfrey, who recently came and opened their camp on Osgood Lake, are accompanied by Mrs. Godfrey's mother, Mrs. Joseph C. Hoagland.

At Camp Wyndover, on Spittire Lake,

William W. McAlpin was this week joined by his son and the latter's wife, Mr. and Mrs. Heyward McAlpin, who came up from the McAlpin estate, on Osgood Lake, a few days ago for a fortnight with Mrs. Kirkwood's mother, Mrs. E. B. McAlpin, of Brooklyn; Mrs. Temple Berdan, of Roselle, N. J., and Mrs. L. G. Grimbridge, of Mount Vernon, are at their cottages at Westminster Park.

Many Cottagers Entertain Large Groups of Guests

Dr. W. P. Shepherd, a professor at Hamilton College, recently had as his guest the president of Hamilton College, Dr. E. C. Ferry, at Westminster Park.

Mrs. S. S. McClelland, of New York, has as her guests at Shady Cove, Mrs. C. H. Parmelee Jr., of New York; another daughter, Mrs. S. J. Titus, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Edith Davis, Mrs. McClelland's other daughter, Mrs. Emile De Planque, of New York, will not take possession of her cottage, "Utopia Lodge," until the latter part of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Mosely and Mr. and Mrs. James Frank, of New York, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Frank at their cottage on Cherry Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shields, Mr. and Mrs. William Bird, Fetter Bartley and Miss Josephine Fleischman, of New York, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Noble at their home on the Canadian side.

Miss Julia Van Deuser will arrive this week for a fortnight's sojourn with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac P. Wiser, at their home on the Canadian side. Miss Julia Farnham, of New York, a niece of Mrs. Wiser's, will arrive at a later date in August. Mrs. E. B. Salano, of California, also will be a guest during August at the Wiser home, as will Philip Wiser, who is in Quebec.

Mrs. Frederick C. Pruyn, of Albany, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fellowes Morgan, at Paquoise Island.

Thousand Islands
Cottages Crowded
By Host of Guests

Golf Tourney Attracts Many, While Others Devote Time to Yachting and Fishing; Hotels Taxed to Capacity

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

ALEXANDRIA BAY, New York, July 30.—In addition to the hosts of sojourners who arrived within the last fortnight to play in the golf tournament this week has brought numerous guests and visitors to the Thousand Islands interested in yachting, fishing and the other numerous diversions to be found at Alexandria Bay. Nearly all of the cottages among the summer colony are filled with guests, as are all of the hotels along the St. Lawrence River. The social life during the last week with its many activities is a forecast of what the gayeties will be at the climax of the season, which will be reached before another week has gone.

There have been many yachting parties during the last week. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Frazer, of Syracuse, entertained a number of guests, including Mrs. Linda Hull Larned, Mrs. Russell Hutchins, of Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. George Sperry Hier, of New York, on their yacht, Neiford; Commodore and Mrs. Thomas H. Wheeler, of New York, had a number of guests aboard their yacht, Empress. Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Conde are on a fishing trip on their yacht, Corinthia, and Alexander R. Peacock entertained a number of friends aboard his cruiser, the former Justice of the Supreme Court.

Dr. A. De Witt Mason, of Brooklyn; Mrs. T. Temple Berdan, of Roselle, N. J., and Mrs. L. G. Grimbridge, of Mount Vernon, are at their cottages at Westminster Park.

Many Cottagers Entertain Large Groups of Guests

Dr. W. P. Shepherd, a professor at Hamilton College, recently had as his guest the president of Hamilton College, Dr. E. C. Ferry, at Westminster Park.

Mrs. S. S. McClelland, of New York, has as her guests at Shady Cove, Mrs. C. H. Parmelee Jr., of New York; another daughter, Mrs. S. J. Titus, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Edith Davis, Mrs. McClelland's other daughter, Mrs. Emile De Planque, of New York, will not take possession of her cottage, "Utopia Lodge," until the latter part of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Mosely and Mr. and Mrs. James Frank, of New York, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Frank at their cottage on Cherry Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shields, Mr. and Mrs. William Bird, Fetter Bartley and Miss Josephine Fleischman, of New York, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Noble at their home on the Canadian side.

Miss Julia Van Deuser will arrive this week for a fortnight's sojourn with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac P. Wiser, at their home on the Canadian side. Miss Julia Farnham, of New York, a niece of Mrs. Wiser's, will arrive at a later date in August. Mrs. E. B. Salano, of California, also will be a guest during August at the Wiser home, as will Philip Wiser, who is in Quebec.

Mrs. Frederick C. Pruyn, of Albany, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fellowes Morgan, at Paquoise Island.

At Camp Wyndover, on Spittire Lake,

Southampton Colony Has
Busiest Week of Season

Many Dinners and Informal Dances Over the Week End; Mulford Entertain Large Party; Mrs. S. J. Leonard Gives Concert; Fair Plans Advanced

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

SOUTHAMPTON, Long Island, July 30.—The summer colony here brought its busiest week of the season to a close to-night with numerous dinners and informal dances. Mr. and Mrs. Vincent S. Mulford gave a dinner at Grape Vines, followed by the first of a series of subscription dances. Mr. and Mrs. Mulford also entertained at dinner on Friday night, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. F. Burrall Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Franchlyn, Dr. and Mrs. P. Flewellyn Chambers, Dr. and Mrs. Walter L. Niles, Thomas Symington and General Charles I. De Bevoise.

Others who gave dinners this evening were Assistant District Attorney and Mrs. W. W. Hoppin, Mr. and Mrs. Channing P. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gallatin and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. James.

Mrs. Stephen J. Leonard gave a concert this afternoon in Southampton for the benefit of the Music School of the East Side Settlement House of New York. Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. David Heller sang to the accompaniment of Victor Harris. Albert R. Gallatin, who is a composer as well as a pianist, accompanied Mrs. Heller in some of his own songs.

Circus Is Added to Events Of Village Street Fair

All Southampton is interested in the Village Street Fair to be held on August 12 for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital. Mrs. Lyttleton Fox has made arrangements for a circus in which the smallest horse in the world and many attractions from Luna Park will appear. Mrs. A. Stewart Walker, Mrs. John H. Morice and Mrs. J. Palmer Knapp will have charge of the decorations and will transform the park where the affair is to be held into a giant flower garden, with alleys of flowers. Wonderland will be in charge of Mrs. Orson D. Munn, who has designed a fun-making entrance, which will be in the shape of a huge tree trunk and at the bottom will be an opening through which the children will have to crawl. Mrs. W. Drayton 3d, who is the originator of the Campbell Kids, will be present and will lend an attraction to this section of the show. She will make portraits of children during the afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sloan are guests of Mrs. George A. Crocker and they will later leave for a trip to Canada by motor.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gallatin gave a dinner to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Jameson, who are at the Edgar cottage, also gave a dinner to-night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Snow are giving a dinner on next Saturday. An on Schefer and his sister, Miss Elsie Schefer, who arrived to-day, are visiting with Dr. and Mrs. Pool.

Miss Isabelle Wood is here for a visit with her cousins, Major and Mrs. Theron Strong.

Dancing in Rustic Arbor At Gledney Farm Is Popular

Dancing in the vineclad rustic arbor at Gledney Farm each evening has lost none of its old-time charm with the summer colony at the hotel. During the past week it has been exceptionally popular with the colonists in the neighborhood, as well as automobile parties who made it the rendezvous for the evening's diversion.

Among the tourists who broke their journey at the hotel were Mr. and Mrs. Peet, St. Paul, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Schiff, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob, the composer, and Mrs. J. J. McLoughlin, of Binghamton, N. Y.

One of the exclusive and fashionable features of the season is the complimentary dance given each Friday evening in the Nassau grill.

Season at the Hotel Nassau, Long Beach, Is in Full Swing

The summer season at the Hotel Nassau, Long Beach, L. I., is now in full swing. Among the prominent guests of this season are Lord and Lady Speyer and their daughter, Leonora; Rex Beach, the novelist; Victor Jacob, the composer, and Mrs. J. J. McLoughlin, of Binghamton, N. Y.

One of the exclusive and fashionable features of the season is the complimentary dance given each Friday evening in the Nassau grill.